BANGALORE, THURSDAY, AUGUST 29, 1907.

PART II.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

Circular No. 2629-36, dated 18*th August* 1907

The attention of Deputy Commissioners is invited to the necessity of adopting strict measures for the proper maintenance and verification of service registers in their own and subordinate offices, and the following extract from a Circular Memorandum issued by the Deputy Commissioner of Kolar to his subordinate offices on the subject, is published for their information :—

"The attention of all officers is invited to Articles 66 and 67 of the Civil Account Code, Volume I, 7th Edition, and Articles 450 to 456 of the Mysore Service Regulations, 3rd Edition, anent the maintenance of service books, and especially to clause (b) of Article 451 of the Mysore Service Regulations, which enforces the periodical verification and attestation of the entries therein. The service books of all subordinates and menials of the permanent establishment should be carefully and minutely examined by the officers themselves personally, and then and there verified and attested.

2. Attention is also drawn particularly to para 3 of Comptroller's Circular No. T-A. 2093-43, dated 6th July 1907, (published in pages 877-8, Mysore Gazette, Part II, dated 18th July 1907), laying down that a certificate must be made on the Schedules of establishment that the latter "have been compared with service books and found to agree.

3. A separate report on this subject should be submitted before the end of August 1907, failure to do which will necessitate withholding of pay bills from 1st October 1907, as referred to in the Comptroller's Circular referred to above."

A. Rangaswami Iyengar,
Revenue Commissioner.
